

Section 3: Physical vs. Chemical Change (Teacher Key)

DIRECTIONS: Trees are transformed into everyday products either physically or chemically. Below, (circle) either physical or chemical to indicate whether each product experienced a physical or chemical change during its production.

Cell phone screen 	Toothpaste 	Baseball bat
Physical or <input checked="" type="radio"/> Chemical	Physical or <input checked="" type="radio"/> Chemical	<input checked="" type="radio"/> Physical or Chemical
Picture frame 	Rocking chair 	Eyeglass frames
<input checked="" type="radio"/> Physical or Chemical	<input checked="" type="radio"/> Physical or Chemical	Physical or <input checked="" type="radio"/> Chemical
Pencil 	Paint 	Cabinets
<input checked="" type="radio"/> Physical or Chemical	Physical or <input checked="" type="radio"/> Chemical	<input checked="" type="radio"/> Physical or Chemical