Big Idea/Topic

Character Analysis and Given Circumstances

Connecting Theme/Enduring Understanding:
Connecting literature to theatrical performance. Engaging in turning text into action, psychology, communication, and physical control.

Essential Questions:
What are the Given Circumstances and why are they important for actor choices?
How can you use a Character Analysis Questionnaire for preparing text for action?

Standard Alignment

CREATING

TAHSA.CR.1 Organize, design, and refine theatrical work.
   a. Use script analysis in the development and presentation of formal and informal theatre performances.
   b. Examine various theories of dramatic structure.
   c. Engage in and apply meaningful cultural, literary, and historical research to create acting choices or directorial concepts.

PERFORMING

TAHSA.PR.1 Act and direct by communicating and sustaining roles within a variety of situations and environments.
   a. Examine and implement the voice, body, observation, and imagination as tools of the actor in presentations of formal and informal theatre.
   b. Research and assess the development of acting skills for character creation and performance including historical movements, personal experience, and cultural influences.
   c. Act by developing, communicating, and sustaining roles within a variety of situations and environments.

RESPONDING

TAHSA.RE.1 Engage actively and appropriately as an audience member.
   a. Examine and reflect on the relationship between actor and a live audience in historical and contemporary performances.

TAHSA.RE.2 Critique various aspects of theatre and other media using appropriate supporting evidence.
   a. Develop and utilize meaningful, structured criteria for assessing the work of an actor.

Instructional Design

*This lesson has a flexible timeline but can be accomplished in 2-3 days.
This lesson is intended to reach students in a virtual setting, whether plugged or unplugged. See the bottom of the lesson for a list of unplugged supplies.

FOUNDATIONAL INFORMATION:
Students must have a foundational understanding about the roles and responsibilities of actors, turning text into action, voice for the actor, movement for the actor, beats and objectives.

CONCEPTS:
Actor Ready Warm-ups
Given Circumstances
Character Analysis
Character Backstory/bio

VOCABULARY:
guideposts, relationship, conflict, humor, opposites, events, moment before, discovery, importance, communication and competition, mystery and secret, game playing/role playing, place.

LINKS:
Character Analysis PowerPoint
Theatre & Film: High School: Videos: Head to Toe Physical Warm-up
Theatre & Film: High School: Videos: Vocal Warm-Ups
Theatre & Film: Acting I: Unit 1: Character Analysis Video

Part 1:
The actor warm-up can be used at the top of each daily session. For a synchronous live digital interface, engage students in an actor warm-up engaging both the body and the voice before the start of class. Examples of basic actor warm-ups can be found in the links below:

Theatre & Film: High School: Videos: Head to Toe Physical Warm-up
Theatre & Film: High School: Videos: Vocal Warm-Ups

After the actor warm-up, discuss as a class the reason for warm-ups and experience of the process. Ask the students to notice what they notice about themselves when engaged in the activity. Discuss with students the connection between an actor-ready body and playing characters on stage.

For an asynchronous recorded digital option have the students watch the video and do the warm-ups on their own making notes in their journal about the sequence when completed.

Unplugged Variation- Provide a written copy of a vocal and physical actor warm-up for the student to engage in. Have the student journal about the sequence when completed each time.

Part 2:
In a live or recorded session present the information from the example lesson script, and the PowerPoint, on a synchronous digital platform such as Google Meet (How it Works: Google Meet), or create an asynchronous video of your own.

Teachers Directions to Students:

Sample Video:
Theatre & Film: Acting I: Unit 1: Character Analysis Video

When students are ready, use the PowerPoint or video included, or presentation of your own making to introduce the character analysis tools for using the given circumstances in a script for creating a character. Select a character as a class from a play or commonly known story and answer the character questions together before letting the students explore the activity on their own. Discuss the exercises as a class or in journals.

Unplugged Variation: Have the student read the information about the character analysis and the given circumstances and engage in the character analysis activity. In place of the class discussion and example, the student can answer the questionnaires about themselves before applying the activity to the characters. This activity can also be used as an enrichment activity with students in the synchronous session if needed.

Part 3:
(The use of social media in this assignment should be adjusted to fit with the social media and online guidelines of your district. The assignment can be done in the style of social media if no online options are available)

Student Instructions:
The following Character-based project has four parts, Create, Perform, Respond, and Connect.

CREATE:
Choose a character from a play. Fill out the character analysis. For the questions that do not have answers easily found in the text, use context clues.
Complete a character biography and backstory for your character. Based on your character analysis, begin to create ideas for a series of TikToks, short videos, or Instagram posts as this character. What would their social media life look like? You can set this in the current day or the world of their play. Suspend your disbelief and make their world come to life!
Submit this assignment in the school’s digital platform under CREATE with a brief outline of which project you will be choosing and creating.

PERFORM:
After you have planned out your TikToks, videos, or Instagrams….CREATE! You can submit your posts via the school’s digital platform (assignment PERFORM) or by tagging the teacher on TikTok/Instagram, or other approved form of social media @teachernamemail@emailschoolnamek12gaus
If you are not on social media - it is NOT required for this project. Choose the video/photo or we can create another alternative for you to complete the assignment.

RESPOND:
In a discussion board- The teacher will send links and info to find your peers’ projects.
Using the critique guidelines, create a critique of their performance in the style of a newspaper critique or a video response.
Submit this assignment in the school’s digital platform (assignment RESPOND) or by tagging the instructor on TikTok/Instagram or other approved form of social media @teachernamemail@emailschoolnamek12gaus

CONNECT:
Theatre is about more than just the performers, directors, and designers. It is about the impact on the world and how we influence and affect an audience.
Imagine you are someone who attended a production of your chosen play. How did the performance change their perspective in the world? Write a blog post or record a vlog as if you are an audience member who just left this production.
Submit this assignment in the school’s digital platform (assignment CONNECT)

Unplugged Variation: Complete the CREATE portion of the assignment on paper to mail to the teacher.
Complete the PERFORM portion of the assignment, the part that would be recorded or posted digitally, live for the teacher over the phone. Complete the RESPOND portion of the assignment by using the critiquing guidelines to critique two actors you have seen play characters recently in tv or film. Complete the CONNECT portion of the assignment on paper and mail the assignment to the teacher.

Evidence of Student Success

Diagnostic: Teacher observation of actor warm-up and a discussion about the connection between actor-ready actors and playing characters on stage.

Formative: Teacher observation group character analysis activity

Summative: Character CREATE, PERFORM, RESPOND, and CONNECT project.

Distance Learning Supports

Ideas for Differentiation:
Our goal is for all students to be actively engaged using the body, the voice, speaking, reflecting, and writing. Below are changes to the lesson to help achieve that goal for students who need additional support or increased rigor. Note: Be careful using these lessons for all students.

- Consider allowing students to record their thoughts in a variety of ways: using the talk to text/dictate feature, making an audio recording of their responses, drawing pictures, circling and/or labeling on their diagram or PowerPoint printouts, etc.

- Students needing additional support can use the smaller character analysis questionnaire. The assignment can be further abbreviated by reducing the number of tasks or by turning the create, perform, respond, and connect into a choice board where the student only selects two of the tasks.

- For low-tech and unplugged adaptation students can work one-on-one with teachers on the phone with modified character analysis and abbreviated assignment.

- Students working at an accelerated pace can complete the character analysis bio and backstory for multiple characters from a variety of plays and complete the tasks for each.

Unplugged Supplies: Lesson checklist, Journal, printed PowerPoint slides, and/or copy of lecture notes, assignment handout, copy of assignment rubric.

Engaging Families

Materials included to support unplugged learners: Lesson checklist, Journal, printed PowerPoint slides, copy of lecture notes, assignment handout, copy of assignment rubric
