

1. You want someone to do a favor for you. What would you say?

O-negai-shimasu.

2. What is the Japanese word for “someone/anyone?” dareka

3. You want to say, “It is not (that).” What would you say?

Chigaimasu.

4. What is another way to say sayoonara to your friend?

Ja, mata. / Jaa, mata.

5. Write the reading of the following words.

example: おと oto

おっと otto

(a) かき kaki

(b) いち ichi

かっき kakki

いっち itchi / icchi

(c) いさい isai

(d) たい tai

いっさい issai

ぜったい zettai

6. kore is used if the object is closer to you.

sore is used if the object is closer to the other person.

are is used if the object is way over there.

dore means “which one” and nan means “what.”

7. Trace the following hiragana.

じゅ っ さ い
s sa i

ち が い ま す
chi ga i su

お ね が い し ま す
o ga i shi su