

1. You want to know who a certain person is. What would you say?

          Dare           desu-ka?

2. Fill in the blanks with the appropriate word.

English		Japanese
my mother	→	(watashi-no) haha
my father	→	(watashi-no) chichi

3. You are looking at a picture of Tim-sensei's parents. How would Tim-sensei and you describe them?

Tim would say:

you would say:

(Watashi-no) haha → Tim-sensei-no okaasan

(Watashi-no) chichi → Tim-sensei-no otoosan

4. When you want to talk directly to your mother, you would call her okaasan.

5. You want to say "my father and mother." What would you say?

(watashi-no) chichi -to haha

6. Write the reading of the following hiragana words in roomaji.

ながさき    なんですか    せんせい    いのうえ
 ( nagasaki )    ( nan )                      ( sensei )    ( inoue )

そうですね    ねこ    いぬ    にこにこ
 ( ne )    ( neko )    ( inu )    ( nikoniko )

7. There are two ways to say "father and mother" in Japanese. The words otoosan and okaasan are used to show honor and respect. The words chichi and haha are used to show humility / modesty.

8. Draw arrows to the corresponding blanks.

