

1. When you have something, you use the Japanese verb arimasu.

When you don't have something, you use arimasen.

2. Write either arimasu ( a ) or imasu ( b ) in the parentheses.

(1) Go-kyoodai-ga ( b )-ka?

(2) Watashi-wa ootoo-ga ( b ).

(3) Enpitsu-ga ( a ).

(4) Shitsumon-ga ( a ).

(5) Shukudai-ga ( a )-yo.

3. Write the appropriate particle when you talk about something that belongs to someone. Write in roomaji.

(a) Kono konpyuutaa-wa watashi-( no ) desu.

(b) Kono kaban-wa watashi-( no ) ja nai desu.

(c) A: Kono kaban-wa dare-( no ) desu ka? B: Watashi-( no ) desu.

4. Fill in the blanks with an appropriate adjective to describe Tim-sensei's possessions. Write in roomaji.

(1) Konpyuutaa-wa atarashii desu.

(2) Rajio-wa chotto furui desu.

5. What did the studio students say about the following items? Choose their answers.

Christy (computer): [ has it ] / doesn't have it [ new / old ]

Adam (computer): [ has it / doesn't have it ] [ new / old ]

Franko (stereo): [ has it ] / doesn't have it [ new / old ]

Susan (walkman): [ has it ] / doesn't have it [ new / old ]

6. Write the pronunciations in roomaji.

(a) まあまあ maamaa (e) めいし meishi

(b) みつびし mitsubishi (f) すもう sumoo

(c) むし mushi (g) もしもし moshimoshi

(d) はじめまして hajimemashite