

1. Write down the following items in roomaji.

eggs:  tamago 	meat:  niku
bread:  pan 	vegetables:  yasai
water:  (o)mizu 	fish:  sakana
rice:  gohan

2. Some Japanese mothers may cook both Japanese / Western style breakfast and Western / Japanese style breakfast. Unlike America, salad is served as a part of western style breakfast in Japan.

3. Write the English equivalents for the following words.

aisu koohii:  iced coffee 	aisu tii:  iced tea
Amerikan koohii:  weak coffee 	ocha:  Japanese/green tea
kissaten:  coffee shop/cafe 	koocha:  black tea

4. Choose the Japanese name of the following dishes from the list below.

- e (1) grilled chicken on a stick
- b (2) thin slices of beef and vegetables cooked in water seasoned with soy sauce and sugar
- d (3) seafood and vegetables dipped in flour-egg batter and deep-fried
- c (4) vinegar rice mixed or topped with fresh, raw seafood or vegetables
- a (5) slices of fresh, raw fish

(a) sashimi (b) sukiyaki (c) sushi (d) tempura (e) yakitori

5. Write the numbers from the results of breakfast survey.

Christy: coffee (7) orange juice (5) water (1)
 Adam: milk (1) coffee (3) tea (2) water (2) cola (2)
 Susan: eggs (4) bread (3) cereal (3)
 Franko: eggs (5) bread (4) corn flakes (1)

6. Trace the following hiragana and fill in the blanks with an appropriate particle.

けいこさん おかあさん くじ おきます
 けいこさんのおかあさんはくじにおきます。