

1. How much money does Tim-sensei have when he goes shopping at Irasshai Depaato? Write in numerals.

3,100 -en

2. Fill in the blanks with an appropriate color in roomaji and circle the studio student's comment on each price.

shiroi T-shatsu [takai / yasui]
murasaki-no booshi [takai / yasui]
midori-no saifu [takai / yasui]

3. In the video skit, how much did the store clerk say the necklace costs? Write in numerals.

6,500 -en

4. Write the following numerical items out in roomaji.

¥2,550 ni- sen go- hyaku go- juu - en

$3,430 san- zen yon- hyaku san- juu - doru

8,165 えん has- sen hyaku roku- juu go- en

1776 ねん sen nana- hyaku nana- juu roku- nen

$19.93 juu -kyuu- doru kyuu- juu san- sentou

5. Japanese department stores are usually several stories high.

Most people in Japan go to department stores by train, so stations are commonly situated right next to the department store building.

6. Write the following katakana words in roomaji.

ヨーヨー ジュース キャンディー
 (yooyoo) (juusu) (kyandii)
 ニューヨーク ジョージア
 (nyuu yooku) (joojia)

7. (a) Add the appropriate particle to the following nouns.

murasaki-(no) wanpiisu midori-(no) booshi

- (b) Change the following adjectives into nouns.

kuroi → kuro chairoi → chairo

kiroi → kiro shiroi → shiro