

1. Match the item with the place you find it.

2. Based on the directions the policeman gives, fill in the blanks in English.

The library is in front of the station.

The movie theater is to the right of Tokyo Hotel.

The post office is in front of the department store.

3. Fill in the blanks, roomaji for (a) and English for (b).

(a) You will most likely find o-mawari-san, or “policeman” in Japanese, in the neighborhood kooban.

(b) Japanese policemen often go around / patrol the neighborhood, keeping the community safe.

4. Mailboxes are called posuto in Japanese. They are red in color, as opposed to blue in the U.S. The mark for post offices in Japan is 〒.

5. Fill in the parentheses with the letter of the location word that corresponds to its place by the hat.

Booshi-no _____.

- (a) mae (b) hidari (c) migi (d) naka (e) ushiro

6. Where were the following items? Fill in the blanks in roomaji.

(a) Patterson’s watch: Kutsu -no naka -ni arimashita.

(b) Susan’s money: Tokei -no ushiro -ni arimashita.

7. Trace the following katakana.

ワ ク ン ソ シ ツ
 ワ シ ン ト ン ウ イ ス コ ン シ ン