

1. Write another way to say imasen when someone is not home. Rusu (desu.)

2. You want to speak to Ms. Eriko Nakayama. Choose the right phrase for each situation from the list below.

- (1) To ask if you got Nakayama's residence. → Nakayama-san desu-ka?
- (2) To ask for Eriko. → Eriko-san, o-negai-shimasu.
- (3) To ask if Eriko is there. → (d)
- (4) To ask what time she'll be back. → (a)
- (5) To tell someone that you'll call back later. → (c)
- (6) To excuse yourself. → (b)

- (a) Nan-ji-ni o-kaeri desu-ka?
- (c) Mata, ato-de denwa shimasu.
- (b) Shitsuree shimasu.
- (d) Eriko-san-wa irasshaimasu-ka?

3. Write the roomaji reading and the purpose for the following telephone numbers in English.

roomaji reading			purpose
110	hyaku-too	-ban	to call the police
119	hyaku-juu-kyuu	-ban	to call an ambulance
117	ichi-ichi-nana	-ban	to get the time
177	ichi-nana-nana	-ban	to get weather information

4. Write the meaning of the following kanji in English.

山: mountain 川: river 田: rice paddy

5. Write the roomaji reading for the following Japanese family names.

田中 中田 高田 本田
 (Tanaka) (Nakata / da) (Takada) (Honda)
 山本 中山 中川
 (Yamamoto) (Nakayama) (Nakagawa)