

1. Circle the correct descriptions of the pai doroboo:

hair length:	long	short
shirt color:	red	brown	black
hair color:	blond	black	brown
height:	tall	short
age:	22	26	36
gender:	male	female

2. When the studio students are facing the four pai doroboo suspects, how do they describe him? Fill in the blanks in roomaji.

Susan:        kiroi booshi -no hito
 Jennifer:    chairoi zubon -no hito
 Arnold:      aoi shatsu -no hito

3. (a) Write the reading of the following kanji in roomaji.

(1) 先生            (2) 学生            (3) 何年生ですか。
 ( sensei )        ( gakusei )        ( nan-nen-sei )

(b) Fill in the blanks in English based on the sentences that Jennifer reads.

I'm in my fourth / 4th year of college.
 I am studying Japanese in college.
 Japanese is difficult but fun.
The teacher's name is Mr. / Mrs. Jones.
 S/he is an American. S/he is tall.
 S/he has long hair and his / her hair color is blond.
 S/he is energetic, interesting and kind.

4. Match the Japanese words on the left with their opposites in English on the right:

ひくい	spicy
きびしい	tall
つめたい	sick
あまい	kind
ながい	short
元気	hot

5. For official documents like resumes and bank withdrawals, Japanese people use a stamp of their name, called a hanko. On one end of this stamp is a person's last / family name. People always use red ink for their stamp. This stamp has been used for hundreds of years by Japanese and Chinese and it can be seen on works of art.