

1. Write down the Japanese equivalents of the following words in roomaji.

- (a) one week is-shuu-kan (c) two years ni-nen-kan
 (b) three hours san-ji-kan (d) four days yokka-kan

2. Fill in the blanks and complete the hints that Arnold and Keith gave in English.

Arnold

He went there 10 years ago.

It (the weather) was hot.

The food was spicy / hot.

This country is next to America.

→ [Mexico / Switzerland / China]

Keith

He went there 8 years ago.

There were mountains and many rivers.

Sometimes it was very cold.

→ [Egypt / Canada / Brazil]

3. Based on the Irasshai Sweepstakes played in the studio, write down the length of each tour in roomaji.

- New York → ichi-nichi Australia → ni-shuu-kan
 Bahamas → itsuka-kan Japan → san-shuu-kan

4. Write the pronunciation of the following kanji in roomaji.

きのう、一じ間 おんがくを聞きました。

(ichi) (kan)

(ki)

二年間、中国にすんでいました。

(ni-nen-kan) (chuugoku)

きよ年、五しゅう間 日本に行きました。

(nen) (go)

(kan) (Nihon) (i)

七か月間、ドイツ語のべんきょうをしました。

(nana-ka-getsu-kan)

(go)

5. For Japanese, the most popular season for vacation travel is Golden Week because it is full of national holidays. The first holiday of the week is Greenery Day, April 29th. Constitution Day is May 3rd and the last holiday of the week is Children's Day, May 5th.