

1. Takai means both “expensive” and “high.”
2. You want to describe a 500-mile long river. What would you say?
Nagai kawa desu.
3. You want to ask, “What is the tallest mountain in the world?” What would you say?
 Sekai-(de) ichiban takai yama-wa doko desu-ka?
4. Let’s play the game with the studio students. Write down the answers to the following questions.

Nihon-no 100: Nihon-de ichiban takai yama-wa doko desu-ka?

Fuji-san / Mount Fuji

Sekai-no 100: Kore-wa doko-no kuni desu-ka?

Igirisu / England

Sekai-no 200: Sekai-de ichiban ookii kuni-wa doko desu-ka?

Roshia / Russia

Amerika-no 100: Amerika-de ichiban nagai kawa-wa doko desu-ka?

Mishishippi-gawa / the Mississippi River

Nihon-no 200: Nihon-de ichiban ookii shima-wa doko desu-ka?

Honshuu

Amerika-no 200: Amerika-no kita-ni doko-no kuni-ga arimasu-ka?

Kanada / Canada

5. Write the reading of the underlined words or kanji in roomaji.

大きい 小さい人 日本の ちり の本 山 と 川
 (oo) (chii) (hito) (Nihon) (hon) (yama)(kawa)