

1. Why did Samuel Adams and other colonial leaders set up the Committee of Correspondence?

- A To write communication to the other colonies regarding Benjamin Franklin's propaganda saying "Join or Die" and why it was important.
- B They set up the committee to be sure to share news with other colonies regarding what was happening in the colonies and what actions colonists could take.
- C Both A and D.
- D To communicate with the British about how to solve the problems with the French.

2. Why was the Boston Tea Party important to the colonists?

- A They were passing their own laws to make tea more affordable for themselves.
- B They were taking a stand against the Southern Colonies.
- C They were taking a stand against the British.
- D They wanted to have more parties similar to those of Europe.

3. How did the Boston Massacre begin?

- A The colonists attacked the southern colonists who had sided with the British.
- B The colonists attacked British law makers.
- C The British fired a shot.
- D The colonists threw snowballs with rocks and yelled at the soldiers.

4. What was John Adams role in the Boston Massacre?

- A He defended the British soldiers.
- B He defended the colonists.
- C He fought against the British soldiers.
- D He fought against the colonists.

5. Why did Paul Revere draw the illustration in the paper the way he did?

- A To convince the colonists that they should disarm and surrender to Britain.
- B To convince the colonists that the Southern Colonies were siding with the British.
- C To convince the colonists that the British soldiers were dangerous.
- D To convince the colonists they should not be afraid of the British.

6. What role did the Sons of Liberty play in the Boston Tea Party?

- A They stopped the colonists from dumping tea in the Boston Harbor to save them from angering the British.
- B They guarded the Boston Harbor from the British so that they could not import tea from Britain and import from other countries instead.
- C They dumped tea from the British into the Boston Harbor to protest taxation on tea.
- D Both A and C.

7. What were some effects of Parliament passing the Tea Act?

- A Boston Merchants refused to sale the East India Tea
- B Colonists were proud that the British was finally helping them get inexpensive tea.
- C Colonists did not want to buy British goods because they felt they were not being included in decisions about their taxes by Parliament.
- D Both A and C.
- E Both A and B.

8. What does it mean to quarter?

- A People give food and shelter to others.
- B To give quarters to the British for taxing.
- C Someone chosen to speak and act for others.
- D To break the colonists up into 4 different parts.

9. Why did the Sons of Liberty dress as Native Americans?

- A They wanted to disguise themselves from the British so that they would not be in trouble with the law for what they did.
- B They wanted to learn about the Native American culture and help the Native Americans join with the colonists.
- C They wanted to escape from the colonies to live among the Native Americans.
- D None of the Above.

10. How did Parliament respond to the act of the Boston Tea Party?

- A They stopped sending tea from Britain to the colonies.
- B They invaded the colonies and filled their homes with soldiers.
- C They passed laws to punish the colonists.
- D They backed down and let the colonists create their own nation.