One day Buttercup was dancing
with her Ball and heard a lowd sound.

She tiptoed around outside and saw a blue spaceship and a butterfly
alien with 3 eyes.

She was afraid at first but the alien said hello. Butterfly decided to follow the alien on the ship.

The alien put a sensor with stripes
on Buttercup so she can talk. She said woof woof. But the alien can't hear her.

She turned the sepcle until she could understand Buttercup. Buttercup was saying can we go to al the places I want to see?

The alien said that will be fun.

Buttercup said lets go.

They flew around Mt. Everest.

Then they went to see the pyramids.

Next they saw the statue of Liberty.

Then they explored the jungle.

The last place Buttercup wanted to see was the coral reef. They were looking at the fish and fell in the water.

A big shark came and chased them.

A dolphin saw and swooshed down
and saved them.

The alien and Buttercup went back home
and the alien decided to stay longer for more adventures on planet Earth.
