

Hannah Finds A Magical Meadow

By Addyson Terry

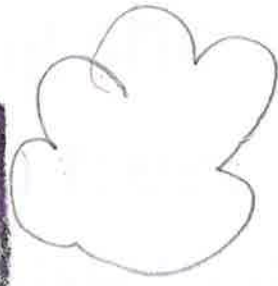

Hannah and her dog were walking in the forest after school thinking of animal adaptations for her school assignment. She was walking until she fell in what seemed to be an endless pit. One hour later she arrived in a magical meadow.

When she got there, she saw two elves named Kory and Cooper. Kory was lifting Cooper up and spinning. They were in tutus. Hannah laughed and they chased her with spears. She ran for her life.

She bumped into some trolls.
The next thing she knew she was tied to a tree. But the elves came with little spears and attacked them. Kory held Cooper while he kicked them in the face. Twenty minutes later she was free. She kept on walking.

While she was walking she thought about her mom. She looked for the necklace that her mom gave her. It was not there. She must have lost her important necklace.

She flashed back to when she was three sitting by her mom's bed. "Take this necklace and you will remember me" her mom said. Two days later she passed.

Soon she came upon a little cottage. It looked like an acorn and it was the size of a little playhouse that kids play in. She knocked and a little fairy opened the door.

She invited her in and they talked. The fairy's name was Marcy. They had so much fun talking about her life story. Then Hannah asked "What happened to your family?"

"They got eaten by flobberworms" replied Marcy.

Suddenly Hannah remembered the necklace. "Have you seen my mom's necklace?" she asked. "What does it look like?" asked Marcy. "It has a red ruby on a gold chain" replied Hannah.

Marcy said “yeah I discovered it, it has powers to make you do whatever you want.” “Can I go back home?” asked Hannah.

“Yeah I guess so” replied Marcy. “Would you like to come with me?” invited Hannah. “Only if you want me to” replied Marcy.

BACK home!

So they went home and lived happily ever after.
